ICORE Divisions: Open, Limited, Classic, Limited 6

- 5.7 Open Division: A revolver must compete in the Open Division if it has one or more of the following modifications:
 - 5.7.1 Compensating, venting, or metering ports of any kind.
 - 5.7.2 An optical sight including telescopic and red dot sights
- 5.8 A revolver may compete in Limited Division if it does NOT have any of the modifications listed in 5.7.1 & 5.7.2
- 5.9 A revolver may compete in Limited 6 Division if it meets the provisions of 5.8 and has the following additional requirements:
 - 5.9.1 A cylinder with only 6 chambers.
- 5.10 A Classic Division revolver is a Limited division revolver that has the following additional requirements:
 - 5.10.1 A cylinder with only 6 chambers.
 - 5.10.2 Any barrel other than an unaltered factory barrel or unaltered factory replacement barrel made by the revolver's manufacturer is NOT allowed in Classic Division. Alterations to the barrel other than what is required to safely install the barrel are NOT permitted in Classic Division.
 - 5.10.3 An under lug, barrel weight, grip weight, or any other modification designed to increase the weight of the revolver is NOT permitted in Classic Division.
 - 5.10.4 Must only use speed loaders to reload. Moon clips are prohibited.
- 5.11 A revolver may only compete in a single Division that must be declared prior to start of competition.

There will be money plaques, 3 IRC entry certificates, and hats from ICORE, and other prizes will also be selected by random drawing. The winner of each division will win a $100 money plaque. You must be a member of ICORE to compete in all Regional Championships. ICORE membership applications will be available the day of the shoot. NOTE: Shooters who want to pay by credit card or PayPal may also join or renew by writing to the treasurer for an invoice: treasurer@icore.org.

STAGES: All stages and their descriptions will be clearly marked for all shooters. The course may designate a specific number of shots to be fired. This is called "Shots Limited" as "Virginia Count" in IPSC. If no time is set or a maximum number of shots are indicated by the course design, the shooter may use extra shots and time to better their score. This is referred to as "Shots Unlimited".

Early Bird Registration: $65 match fee (if postmarked before Oct 1, 2018)
